d-tec

The profile of this amazing model was designed to meet the demands of the Team Drakes players who were looking for an indoor model with a tight line with just enough bias to turn into the head, but with a soft finish with no hook. The feedback from players has been superb.

PRO-50

The new PRO-50 is identical in profile and performance to the incredibly popular Professional model, the only difference is in the grip. Known as the 'Channel Grip', this grip is unlike any other currently offered. This grip quite literally creates two deep channels in the bowl which have been found to help many players improve control over their bowl during delivery and in many cases have even enabled players to comfortably deliver a larger size bowl than they usually could. With identical performance to the Professional model, which has been the most popular model for many years, the PRO-50 is an exceptionally well balanced bowl, suitable for both indoor and outdoor use. Whilst the Professional model will continue to be a popular choice, this additional PRO-50 version gives more options to players looking to benefit from such handling characteristics.

The 'Channel Grip'

XP

Numerous top players have assisted and advised us on the ideal line they were looking for in an outdoor model. Both the profile and the line are crucial to success of a model and this has been achieved by maintaining the perfect balance of the Professional model whilst adding the touch more bias required for the outdoor game.

"All the great characteristics of the Professional with a touch more bias"
Rebecca Willgress

"My Commonwealth Gold Medal winning bowls!!!"
Rob Weale

Accuracy Beyond Belief ..... All Drakes Pride bowls are computer designed and diamond turned on robotic equipment for accuracy measured in fractions of one micron!

At this size the bowls do not comply with World Bowls rules so they cannot be stamped with the WB stamp or used in some tournaments, but they are great for introducing children to the sport.

BIASSED CARPET BOWLS (B8300)

A 'set of carpet bowls' traditionally describes 4 pairs of bowls of one colour and 4 pairs of bowls of another colour, however in order that players can purchase sets comprising of two colours of their choice we offer these bowls in boxes of two pairs. Jacks are sold separately. The white jack used for carpet bowls is the same as the jack used for level green bowls (see product B3050).

Stay ahead of the game...

It has taken state of the art technology working to fractions of one micron combined with decades of research into the science of bowls performance to create the profiles of Drakes Pride bowls.

Drakes Pride have more experience in the design and manufacture of bowls on computer controlled technology than any other brand.

We understand that the shape contributes most to a great performing bowl and have drawn on our biasing experience, which dates back to 1820, to create the best performing modern day profiles. Working with top ranking players, professors of mathematics, engineering and physics our hugely successful profiles have been created.

No bowls are more accurate and all are produced as perfectly matching sets. The complex formulas and hidden datum points make it impossible to copy these profiles precisely, making sure Drakes Pride remain ahead of the game...
